

UNITED KINGDOM ASSOCIATION FOR EUROPEAN LAW

KING'S College
LONDON

University of London

Remedies for Breach of EU Law Revisited

18 June 2010, 10.00 - 17.00, Edmond J Safra Lecture Theatre, King's College London
5 CPD points accredited, Fee £150 (£100 for UKAEL Members and Academics)

The Quest for an Effective Remedy

Morning chaired by Lord Lester of Herne Hill QC, Blackstone Chambers

Effective judicial protection in EU Law

Professor Anthony Arnull, University of Birmingham

Comments: Professor Adrian Zuckermann, University of Oxford

Consistent interpretation case law

Professor Paul Craig, University of Oxford

Comments: Professor Paul Farmer, Dorsey & Whitney LLP, and King's College London

A statistical analysis of EU litigation: winners and losers in Luxembourg

Professor Takis Tridimas, Queen Mary, University of London

Comments: Mr Justice Richard Plender, High Court of Justice, England and Wales

Afternoon chaired by Sir John Dyson, UK Supreme Court

Public procurement directive as paradigm for remedies harmonization

Mr Justice Donnell Deeny, High Court of Justice, Northern Ireland

Effective judicial protection before national courts: lessons from Ireland

Mr Justice Nial Fennelly, The Supreme Court of Ireland

Comments: Miss Margaret Gray, Brick Court Chambers, London

Remedies for the Consumer

Professor Simon Whittaker, University of Oxford, Blackstone Chambers

Damages - competition law

Mr Nicholas Khan, Legal Service, European Commission

Concluding remarks: Professor Michael Dougan, University of Liverpool